

Woodland Art Workshop with James Groening (Blue Sky)

Calling all International and Indigenous students at Burnaby South Secondary!

Join us for a fun painting workshop with James Groening, a Burnaby-based Cree artist from the Kahkewistahaw First Nation. Known as Blue Sky, James creates vibrant, expressive works in the Woodland Art style, sharing stories & legends from his rich cultural heritage.

You'll learn the story of Turtle Island & paint your own turtle in the Woodland Art style.

Through storytelling and creativity, discover the power of connection and culture—no painting experience needed!

Turtle Legend by James Groening

Date: May 4

Time: 3:15–4:30 PM (after school)

Location: Room E103

All supplies will be provided. Please confirm your attendance by April 29 so we can ensure enough materials for everyone.

Come create, learn, and connect—we hope to see you there!
